Join today and start receiving the trilingual women's magazine, ABAKADA, an acronym for Ang Balitang Kababaihan sa Danmark (in English: The Women's News in Denmark). ABAKADA also means Primer or Basic Reader when it comes to women issues, esp. immigrant women, internationally, such as migration, development, integration and the multicultural society and related topics such as mass media, the environment, cross cultures and much more. Abakada also carries general interest articles on women's health, tourism, literature, while Danish culture is featured every so often. It is a magazine filled with humour, pet women topics and topical cartoons. As a member, one has big discounts when printing advertisements in the magazine, while opening up your market to a wider audience.
